

Update November 30, 2021

Hello Blues Fans,

Since our last update we hope that everyone and their families have been well and healthy through this pandemic. These have certainly been challenging times for all of us and we are thankful that live music performances are once again happening!

*Music Aurora is thrilled to announce that the Aurora Winter Blues Festival after a two-year absence is back, and our 9th Annual event is scheduled to run from March 11th through March 13th of 2022.

Check out our Line-Up – we have two Wonderful shows with the Ladies (Samantha Martin & Delta Sugar and Meghan Parnell & Bywater Call) commanding the stage Friday night and then the Men (Hard Dog Brown and Sugar Brown) taking control on Saturday night.

New for this year is our Community Music Event on Sunday, March 13th which is our way of Thanking our Supporters and Local Community. Music Aurora is proud to present “A Reflection On The Blues” – hosted by an Award Winning Artist who will provide you with an Overview of the Blues, Live Music, Personal Stories and interactive Q&A. This is a fundraiser event ($5 Donation) for our Music Aurora Youth In Music Program.

In conjunction with Provincial and Municipal Health Organizations, Music Aurora will be abiding by all COVID-19 protocols pertinent to the venue/staff and our patrons, performer’s and volunteers.

Please continue to support your local artists and remember – play your Blues Often and Loud, and we look forward to you joining us for Live Blues again!

Stay Well and Healthy.

Sincerely Yours,

Music Aurora
